Covenant of Divine Guidance

Text: Psalm 25:1-10

INTRODUCTION

Everyone who has received Jesus Christ as Lord and saviour is a child of God who represents God here on earth. To represent Him effectively in the world we live which is full with myraids of options and decisions to choose from and make, we must be guided by God. Isa.58:11.

BENEFITS OF DIVINE GUIDANCE

1. God's guidance is divine; it is void of error. Psa.16:11, Psa 23: 1-2.
2. It is clear, not ambiguous. Psa.27:11, Isa.35:8.
3. His guidance is continual; it's for a lifetime. Psa.48:14, 73:24
4. It is unique to each individual; he guided the wise men by a star and guided Paul by His voice. Mat. 2: 9, Acts 9:6. His guidance is adapted to suit each individual's needs and purpose.
5. God's guidance is comprehensive; he is willing to guide concerning every detail of our lives here on earth, no issue is too small and certainly no matter is too great for us to bring to Him in order that we may know His will concerning it. Eph.5:17.

HOW TO OPERATE UNDER DIVINE GUIDANCE

1. His Word: The bible is our compass, our guide book for the whole of our earthly pilgrimage. Psa.32:8-9, Psa.119:105. Study, meditate and obey.
2. Submit to the leading of the Holy Spirit. Jn.16:13-14, Acts 10:19-20, 16:7.
3. Wise counsel from faithful leaders. Pro.11:14, Exod 18: 17-20

CONCLUSION

To live a purposeful and fulfilling life on earth, yield completely to the divine guidance of God and see Him make your life a showpiece. Rm. 8:19.
